COMPLAINT

Tennessee Valley Operating Engineers Health Fund (Plaintiff), complaining of James D. Oldham, III d/b/a Oldham Construction Company, LLC (Defendant) alleges as follows:

1. This action is brought and maintained in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 959 to enforce the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), 29 U.S.C. § 1001 et seq., as amended by the Multiemployer Pension Plan Amendments Act of 1980, in particular 29 U.S.C. § 1145 (Section 515 of ERISA), and is a civil action to compel payment of and recover employer contributions owed to the Plaintiff. Jurisdiction is premised upon 29 U.S.C. § 1132(e)(1).

2. Venue is based on 29 U.S.C. § 1132(e)(2) as Plaintiff is an employee benefit plan as that term is defined in ERISA at 29 U.S.C. §1002 (1), and in that the Fund is administered in this judicial district through Southern Benefit Administrators, Incorporated of Goodlettsville, Tennessee.

3. The Plaintiff is a welfare plan as that term is defined in ERISA at 29 U.S.C. §1002 (1), and is funded by contributions remitted by multiple participating employers pursuant to negotiated collective bargaining agreements. All principal and income from such contributions and investments thereof is held and used for the exclusive purpose of providing health and welfare benefits to participants and beneficiaries of the Plaintiff after paying administrative and other reasonable expenses of the Fund.

4. Defendant purports to be an artificial entity known as Oldham Construction Company, LLC operating as a debtor-in-possession, but the Tennessee Secretary of State has rescinded the charter of the LLC. Defendant is engaged in operations as an employer and a party in interest as those terms are defined in ERISA at 29 U.S.C. §§ 1002(5) and 1002(14)(c).

5. During all pertinent times, Defendant was a party to a collective bargaining agreement. Pursuant to this agreement, Defendant was to pay certain contributions to the Plaintiff on behalf of covered employees. Pursuant to this agreement, Defendant was bound by the provisions of the trust agreement which created the Plaintiff, and Defendant was thereby obligated to pay contributions on behalf of employees covered by the collective bargaining agreement.

6. Plaintiff operates on the basis of an employer self-reporting payment system whereby participating employers such as Defendant identify those employees for whom contributions are owed, identify the weeks worked by the covered employees, and based upon employee work history reported, the employers make contributions and payments to the Plaintiff.

7. The collective bargaining agreement and trust agreement require prompt payment of all such contributions, failing which a delinquent employer may be assessed with attorney's fees and other fees for late payment as permitted by law, plus interest on unpaid contributions. Plaintiff operates pursuant to written procedures which authorize the entry of a judgment against an employer for contributions owed to include by mandate of the Court the greater of a doubling of the interest or liquidated damages based upon unpaid contributions in the amount of twenty percent (20%), all as allowed by 29 U.S.C. §§ 1132(g)(2)(C)(i) and (ii).

8. Section 306(a) of the Multiemployer Pension Plan Amendments Act of 1980, adding Section 515 of ERISA, 29 U.S.C. § 1145, provides that every employer who is obligated to make contributions to a multiemployer plan under the terms of the plan or under the terms of the collective bargaining agreement shall, to the extent not inconsistent with law, make contributions in accordance with the terms and conditions of such plan or such agreement.

9. Defendant has breached the above-referenced provisions of ERISA, the collective bargaining agreement, and the trust agreement whereby the Plaintiff was created and operates, such breach occurring by virtue of Defendant failing to pay any of the contributions and interest due thereon and having failed to submit reports with the employee work history for employees.

10. Despite demand by the Plaintiff that Defendant perform its statutory and contractual and trust obligations with respect to making contributions to the Fund, Defendant has neglected and refused to pay the amounts that are due as a consequence of the conduct described herein, and Defendant currently owes an outstanding principal amount without regard to accumulated interest. Defendant owes accumulated interest on the unpaid contribution as a result of its conduct as described herein.

11. The failure of Defendant to pay contributions on behalf of its employees will cause Plaintiff's participants who are employees of Defendant to suffer irreparable harm through the loss of health benefits; further, employer delinquencies such as those of Defendant adversely affect and impact upon the financial integrity of the Fund, and the continued delinquency will cause the Plaintiff to lose the benefit of interest income that it would otherwise earn and will cause the Plaintiff to incur additional administrative expenses in connection with the remedying of the delinquencies of Defendant.

12. Copies of this Complaint will be served upon the Secretary of Labor and the Secretary of the Treasury by certified mail in accordance with the provisions of ERISA Section 502(h), 29 U.S.C. § 1132(h).

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests the following relief:

(a) A permanent injunction enjoining Defendant from violating the provisions of ERISA, the collective bargaining agreement, and the trust agreement requiring payment of contributions.

(b) A judgment against Defendant in favor of Plaintiff for all contributions that are owed as of the date of the judgment plus the greater of double interest or single interest plus liquidated damages and all attorney fees and costs incurred in connection with this action.

(c) For such further or different relief as the Court may deem proper or just.

Respectfully submitted,
